

THE KENTUCKY WARFARE.

Judge Lewis Says the Recent Stories of the Howard-Turner Feud are Untrue.

Only Two Fights and the Casualties Not Very Large--The Howards on the Run.

Terrible Shooting Affray Between Negroes, in Which a Washington Policeman Loses His Life.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.—The Courier-Journal has received a letter from Judge Lewis of Harlan county, regarding the recent troubles there, in which he says the reports have been greatly exaggerated. October 19 John Howard was shot at by Finlay Smith for some reason. Howard, who is a brother of the notorious Wilson Howard, instead of waiting for the authorities to deal with Smith, sent word to his brother to come and help him take revenge on the citizens of Mount Pleasant. Wilson Howard appeared on the scene the next day with a posse of seven men and was joined by Benjamin Spurlock and party afterwards. They announced their intention to take possession of the court house and fight the matter out. Judge Lewis summoned a posse, made an attack upon a portion of the gang, who were fortified in a dwelling house, killing and wounding four. The remainder of the gang fled in utter disorder. The whole party of Howards then retired to Martin's Fork, where Judge Lewis followed in a few days. On the way William, Clem and L. D. Hall, sympathizers of the Howard gang, were overtaken and run away when called upon to halt. They were fired upon and killed. The judge says he has thirty-seven warrants out against Spurlock and his men and that they have asked for peace. Howard and his chief lieutenant have left the country and the judge hopes the battle is over.

Three Men Killed.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—An affray occurred last night in a low negro saloon in a respectable part of the city known as Hell's Bottom, which resulted in the death of two men and probably the mortal wounding of a third. The trouble originated over a misunderstanding between two young negro roughs, George Bush and Osborn Busey. They met last night and Bush fired four shots, two hitting Busey, one in the lungs and one in the shoulder. Policeman A. N. Crispin pursued Bush into a neighboring house. Bush turned and fired, hitting the policeman in the breast and knocking him down. The latter fired twice while down, hitting the negro in the breast both times. They then grappled. In the struggle the negro's revolver was discharged, the bullet entering the policeman's brain and killing him instantly. Bush died later. Busey will probably die.

It is astonishing how rapidly the feeble and debilitated gain strength and vigor when taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. For what are called "broken-down constitutions," nothing else has proved so effective as this powerful and perfectly safe medicine.

Home Testimony.
HELENA, Oct. 7, 1887.
I was suffering from an unusually bad cough, my lungs were sore and congested, and I consulted one of the best physicians in Helena, whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became alarmed, and at the suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Aker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

JACOB SWITZER.
I had a racking cough and inflamed throat and bought a bottle of Aker's English Remedy upon the recommendation of a friend, and was entirely cured by it. I consider it a never failing remedy for a cough.
